thursdays / music

It takes a huge amount of people, effort and time to set up quarterLife's weekly service. That's why we need volunteers who can help weekly, monthly, or even just once in a while with things like setup, tear down, coffee, parking and such. Musicians for each week are also needed.

If you could give a little time before, during or after the Thursday service, contact Robin Potts at rpotts@kensingtonchurch.org or 248.786.0713. If you are a musician who is interested in playing, please contact Bryon Rossi at brossi@kensingtonchurch.org. Be sure to include your contact information and experience level.

quarterLife small groups are groups of people who meet weekly to talk about life, share solutions to problems and just hang out. Keep checking here in the coming weeks for small group openings and contact info that will allow you to connect.

If you are interested in joining or starting a small group right now or in the future, contact Drew Hage at dhage@kensingtonchurch.org or 248.786.0673, or Kevin Hughes at khughes@kensingtonchurch.org or 248.909.2399.

kenny quarterLife

Kenny QuarterLife WANTS YOU to be his friend. All you have to do is search for him, or poke through your coolest friend's friend list. I can almost promise they'll be there. You need Kenny, and Kenny needs you.

Also, if anyone would like to donate an OU email address to Kenny, help out with the quarterLife website, do graphic design or gain some résumé-building marketing and communications experience, please contact Cam Underdown at cameron@camudesign.com or 248.632.0121.
